Personal Medical Record Journal

An exclusive publication of AMMN

To help your clients maintain a comprehensive and complete record of their health history.

Although 'Electronic Health Records' (EHRs) have been in the news for decades, it is limited in scope & content, plus it's expensive and subject to loss of privacy & breaches.

The AMMN's simplified, economical, safe and secure 'Personal Medical Record Journal' empowers your clients a safe way to maintain their health history that can save their life and that of their families and future generations.

You can buy them from AMMN for $10.00 and sell it to your client for $12.00. Surveys show that 75% of the clients want this service but it's not available.
