Member: American Massage Therapy Association & Alliance for Massage Therapy Education
American Medical Massage Network (AMMN) is a National Organization, founded to promote the services of those Massage Therapists who have unique skills, qualifications & experience in working with patients with myriad of health conditions.

Every Health Profession - from medicine & nursing to dentists, chiropractors, physical therapists, etc. went thru the minimum of high school graduation to college degree and eventually 4-Year Doctorate training. Massage Therapy is no exception. It is now widely accepted as an important health profession.

The AMMN exists to empower thousands of highly qualified massage therapists nationwide, as the only massage therapy organization devoted solely to Medical Massage.

According to AMTA:
- Massage Therapy was a $18 billion industry in the United States in 2018.
- Between July 2017 & July 2018 roughly 47.5 - 63.6 million adult Americans (19-28%) had a massage at least once.
- 62 per cent of Adult Americans receive a massage for health reasons.
- 46% of the patients had discussed massage therapy with their doctors or healthcare providers.
- 47% of the doctors, 51% of chiropractors and 46% of physical therapists referred a massage therapist to their patients.

We Are Here To Help
Your patients count on you to give them the best care. You can count on AMMN to give you the tools and resources to focus your time where it matters most. When you join the AMMN, you gain a network that is committed to:
- Advancing your specialty in Medical Massage

- Signs & Symptoms
- Diagnosis & Prognosis of a disease
- How to prevent developing this health condition/disease
- Treatment Options (including traditional & non-traditional medicine)
3. Academic Programs in Massage Therapy - Nearly 200 dynamic courses in Massage Therapy from 10-45 hours. Some of these courses require ‘internship’ with a local Medical Specialist.

* The cost is only $5/hour for AMMN members.

Personal Medical Record Journal
An exclusive publication of AMMN
To help your clients maintain a comprehensive and complete record of their health history.

Although ‘Electronic Health Records’ (EHR) have been in the news for decades, it is not happening soon, plus it’s very expensive and subject to loss of privacy & breaches.

The AMMN’s simplified, economical, safe and secure ‘Personal Medical Record Journal’ empowers your clients a safe way to maintain their health history that can save their life and that of their families and future generations.

You can buy them from AMMN for $10.00 and sell it to your client for $12.00. Surveys show that 75% of the clients want this service but it’s not available.
